Today's Speaker

Mr Sandip Sabharwal,
CEO, Prabhudas Lilladher

Mr Sandip Sabharwal An IIT (Delhi) and IIM (Bangalore) alumni with over 14 years of experience in the markets, Sandip has over the years received several of the country's top fund management awards. He began his career in 1995 as a Research Analyst at SBI Mutual Funds and took over as the Head of Equity in 2004.

He has been instrumental in turning around the prospects of its equity funds through his aggressive investment strategy. During the period from January 2004 to end of 2005, the total AUM of SBI MF went up by 10 times from Rs. 600 Crores to Rs. 5800 Crores mainly driven by the performances of the scheme which were better than all peer group schemes in the market.

Sandip was also Awarded 'Business Standard Fund Manager' of the year for 2004-05 by the Finance minister of India Mr. P Chidambaram. Subsequently, He joined JM Financial AMC as the Chief Investment Officer (Equity). In his very first year, the AUM of the fund house grew from Rs. 200 crores to Rs. 5400 crores. During his tenure, three JM equity schemes were among the Top 10 Indian Funds and within Top 51 of the World performing equity funds and 2 JM equity schemes figured in the top 10 diversified equity schemes in India in 2007.

Minutes of 158th RWM held on 27th November 2009 at Udipi Café, Deshapriya Park

- Rtn. Srijit called the meeting to order at 7:30 pm.
- Attendance Lag in RWM was discussed. Rtn. Sameer suggested that we regulate and arrange 1 RWM at DKS our regular venue where attendance for all members will be mandatory and three others as 1 Joint Meeting with some other Rotary clubs, 1 fellowship get together for all members and their family over contributory dinner and 1 Good will visit every month. In this way we will have better attendance and also curb cost of meetings.
- Rtn. Srijit presented a report of the President & Secretaries Meet at Shantiniketan that he had attended. The long pending case of heart surgery for a young child was put up before the members present and a funding of Rs 20000 was proposed to be raised. Rtn. Sameer, Rtn. Nawneet, Rtn. Nilesh volunteered to donate Rs. 5000 each to meet Rs. 15000 of the total amount. The rest of the surgery cost is to be borne by the District.
- Rtn. Nawneet raised the impertinent issue of Members not meeting up with the club dues. Rtn. Srijit reiterated that as decided after the deadline of 30th Oct, no adjustments of receivables will be made against the overdue members fees and there will be no consideration in this regard.
- Rtn. Kartik was requested to get in touch with The Jalmangal Niketan Club people regarding the probable dates for the dental check up of the school kids.
- President requested all the members to attend the District Conference at Nazrul Manch on the 15th, 16th, & 17th of Jan 09.
- Rtn. Arindam Mukherjee was requested to organize his committee for the J4U and Seminar on road safety project at the earliest.
- Regarding J4U Rtn. Srijit Maitra informed the members that talks are being regularly held with Rotary Club of Calcutta Members. Rtn. Nawneet suggested an alternative venue for the event. The proposal was considered and the President said that he would discuss the matter with Rtn. Prakash Nahata.
- With Regards to electing the President Elect for 2010-11 nominations in favour of Rtn. Suman K Sarbadhikari and Rtn. Sanjeeb Gandhi were drawn. Rtn. Srijit said to have the matter discussed with both members who were absent in this meeting and would let every one know in the next RWM. P(E) Rtn. Mausam is supposed to be intimated about the proceedings and his announcement due of his Board of Directors and Club Officers for the next year.
